

From: Ken Prevo
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/18/01 8:03am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The very least that I would find acceptable would be a "Chinese Wall" between the operating system division and the rest of the company.

Microsoft has historically used the operating system to advantage their other product lines--often to the detriment or destruction of competitors.

As a programmer for 30 years, I experienced their proprietary and changing APIs since DOS 2.1. Without government intervention this will continue.